Dear James,

First off, a quick programming reminder! We are super excited to have none other than Forrest Valkai (!!!) coming to Northwest Arkansas tomorrow Sunday, July 13th at 1pm at the Fayetteville Library. Known as the Renegade Science Teacher online, Forrest is clearly a big draw, so if you plan to attend, make sure to register! This is a FREE event, but seating is limited. Register here!

In other news, the Ozarks Chapter of FFRF kicked off the 2025 Secular Speaker Series by hosting author and former Washington Post columnist Kate Cohen on Wednesday, June 18th. Kate traveled to Bentonville and presented to an audience of nearly 40 people at the Bentonville Public Library on why America needs atheists now more than ever. Thank you to those who came and supported this event!

The end of June marked the celebration of NWA Pride in Fayetteville. Our chapter registered over 90 new contacts during the tabling event, and received huge support as we walked through the parade. Seeing how people value separation church & state is rewarding & inspiring, and helps build our coalition here in the Ozarks. We love to see the secular community coming together to move the needle of this issue.
